For those of you watching the video, Rainbow is helping me out. Her tail here.

OK. So I'll see if we can get Ascended Master Djwhal Khul in here to channel. I am on location in Nogales, Arizona and obviously Rainbow needed a little love right now. So here we go!

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are going to begin with a golden white color coming in through the Crown Chakra, just a standard energy that is very, very good for many years to come, and then I want to work also with the violet flame. Again another classic, with the violet flame coming up from the Earth and working with the energies in that regard. Now what I am going to work with today is the Summer Solstice energy. That particular vibration is very powerful as we get into the weekend here.

We do have a call planned for Saturday called the Forecast for the next three months and we will work with that as well. The Summer Solstice should be very, I want to say, hot or intense. So even if the temperature is not all that hot outside, what you will be feeling is a kind of hot, itchy, energy with the solar influences.

The vibration. I apologize. Rainbow is just soaking up the attention here. Trying to keep her tail from knocking the microphone and other things. The vibration of the Solstice, what I would say is: greet the Sun. Literally hold up your hands, up in the air, as if you are giving the Sun a hug. Of course, don't stare directly into it to cause blindness or anything, but you want to really embrace the Sun and hug it.

Then we have a total eclipse of the Sun coming one month later, July 22 when we have the Sun moving into Leo. So this is really the beginning of a one month cycle with a very different relationship with Solar Energy. It has to do with magnetics and a few other things that sometimes affect communications, batteries, electronics and so forth, I would even say solar storms or those kinds of energies.

In the body physically, they produce a hot itchy heat, almost like a heat rash sensation, but it is in the energy fields. One of the best remedies is baking soda. Take a bath in baking soda water, sometimes you can just sprinkle a little bit of baking soda and some water and drink it or you can soak a nice soft cotton cloth in baking soda water and apply it to your skin topically.

Alright everyone. Goodbye from me and from Rainbow who has been a very good helper in this particular session. Thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
