(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are going to work with some predictions for about the first half or so of this year. I might look a little bit further ahead in this particular Information article. Now the vibrations are certainly ripe for change. I have dubbed it the Turnaround Year, and it is most certainly a Turn Around Year.

However it is also going to be somewhat strenuous in terms of earth activity and financial energies. So I would say that if you want to see more, I do a quarterly forecast. I believe the 2010 First Quarter Forecast is available by audio and by transcript on the website if you want to see a kind of day by day view.

Beyond that I am seeing perhaps quite a strong dip in the financial things, maybe stronger unemployment or maybe even a deeper recession. So choose wisely where you are putting funds, choose living in a safe place with neighbors or community that feels good to you. I would say always wise to have some extra resources on hand, food, water, etc., no matter where you live.

And then earthquake activity I see increasing this year, more the shaking than say hurricanes and what not, although the tropical storms may be somewhat strong as well. So I would say that I am not doing this in terms of fear programming whatsoever but rather to say be prepared just in case something may happen.

I have been studying the solar activity and that is what I think is concerning me the most because when there is a reverberation in the center of your solar system as strong as they have been, then you are going to have electro-magnetic imbalances on the Earth that will affect satellites, batteries, electronic transfers, things like that. So it is going to be an interesting year.

The most important thing to remember is that this allows you to turn things around and point them in the right direction spiritually. It allows humanity to deepen its sense of bonding. You and someone in Haiti for example are one and the same and to feel that Humanity and out of that energy, out of that compassion, then the direction of Humanity is turned around.

Personally it can be your Turn Around year as well. Focus on what you do want because energy follows thought.

As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
