(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

I would like to begin with a green healing color. Just allowing a beautiful green to sort of fill the aura, perhaps also to be shining through the body like a beam of light maybe even radiating in all directions as though the body were a green light bulb glowing and specifically whatever is the shade of green that is a healing for you personally.

We're moving into a little bit of an interesting time period here where things will be sort of on a time stretch, seemingly taking a long time and then in a very fast period or short sequence, so things moving almost too fast to keep moving with them.

So there is going to be this kind of odd sense of timing and the green healing color can assist you with balancing that out. It's also going to require practicing patience from time to time or literally speeding up to meet the energies at hand. And again short bursts of that, not sustained time periods of quick happenings.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
