(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

We are going to begin with a golden white light coming in through the crown chakra, golden white for the Christed combination of Universal energies and Earthly energies. It is a very strong healing power. Allow that energy to just flow through the crown chakra. Good. Now there is a saying that is "Be the Change You Wish to See." And that is what I am going to talk about today. And always there is an energetic experience with the teachings as well. So it's "Be the Change You Wish to See."

We have more cat purrs and a few extra kisses in there too I think.

If you want to see peace, live a more peaceful life. If you want to see success, be more successful. If you want to see balanced relationships, balance your relationship with yourself and then with others.

So the energy that you put forth is very important not just as a co-creator in the moment but as one who is helping to bring the future to the present moment. And so, just a very simple question for you there: "What change would you like to see and are you ready, willing and able to step into that reality as though the change has already been made?"

It's a good solid look at the consciousness and what is possible. Now as we go a little bit deeper into this year, we have some very important dates coming up and I did talk about them in the Forecast for the First Quarter in more detail but I think that the landmark event by far.

Even though it is a very busy astrological time of change, the biggest one is Pluto, after a long stint in Sagittarius, will go in Capricorn and stay there until the year 2024. That is a very big shift for most of humanity and will bring about change. So again, reflecting on the change that that might have on the world, what it might do to the economy, what it might do to politics, what it might do to bring justice to light. Again, what is the change that you wish to see and can you yourself be that change?

I would say that this is also a time for a lot of positive visualization, a lot of positive thinking and looking forward to the future rather than maybe dreading a potentiality or a possibility. Especially as lightworkers of consciously using your energies in manifesting direction, you want to focus on the positive outcomes. Alright.

This has been your Spirituality Article for this particular week. Stay tuned. I am working with many of you on the inner planes in night school and will continue to do so and of course, we'll keep updating the messages rapidly.

Thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
