(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright we are going to begin with the Evolution Spiral and this is an energy that comes in through the crown chakra, sort of like a funnel above the head, directing all the energies straight down through the body and then the Evolution Spiral starts beneath the feet and spirals all the way back up with the spiral getting wider and wider and wider as it goes up. It goes up quite a bit above the head, almost a full height of the body again.

So the Evolution Spiral is a very important tool to work with as we approach a very momentous event which is Pluto going into Capricorn, that is Friday the 25 and will occur at 6:37 pm Pacific or Los Angeles time. It’s a very important event.

Now it will be there for a few months and it will go retrograde mid-June, so retrogrades back to its previous sign of Sagittarius and then in November, will go direct again into Capricorn but even through that time period, we have a lot to prepare for so think in terms of Pluto being transformation and then we have Capricorn and sort of an accountability coming in and then we have the natural process of Evolution.

And one of the best things that you can do especially through this time period of 2008 through 2012, that's about a five year time period there, and clearly my goal is to bring to as many members of humanity as are interested to bring about, condense that, to give you about 10 years' worth of esoteric teachings each year during that time period.

The whole website is set up so that you will have access to these teachings at any moment that you desire them. So any time, day or night, any day of the year, you can go and get some sort of spiritual inspiration there and then synchronizing with Evolution, literally just saying "I am along for the ride, I am unfolding and evolving and I am complementary to all the things in Creation" rather than feeling stuck or like you're getting slammed around a little bit by the occurrences in the Heavens. You really want to be synchronized, and flowing and evolving, just sort of fitting into the greater picture if you will.

So keep working with that Evolution Spiral, particularly to assist as you move through this transition where Pluto goes into Capricorn because it will stimulate some world events, some world economy changes. I outlined those in my 2008 Forecast which I believe the audio is available online for download and the transcript will be available as a written download coming very soon, if you want more details about that.

Alright everyone. This has been your Spirituality Article for this particular week. And we'll keep you posted as to further developments through this particular vehicle. Thank you and my love to you.
