And here is Djwhal Khul's latest Spirituality Article, information complimentary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are going to work today in the Energy of Forgiveness. Now, I very carefully said that. We are not forgiving per se, or forgetting. We are working in the Energy of Forgiveness, which is a little bit different.

What it creates, first within the consciousness, is a kind of a neutral zone that allows for compassion, empathy, etc. And I am doing this really on the heels of the Olympic Games and working with a lot of things, politically, that have been happening behind the scenes, not just there but around the globe. Because while all eyes are on a certain event, lots of other things can happen in other places and go pretty much unnoticed.

So, to invoke the Energy of Forgiveness is a very important part of healing right now. As you have listened to me teach many times that we are all One, and you hear many other teachers say the same thing – there is no separation, that is an illusion.

When we are dealing with things going on around the globe that perhaps call for the Energy of Forgiveness, we feel it. Even when we can't articulate it in terms of what we are feeling or we can't particularly relate it to what is going on in daily life; it will come about in a bit of a different form. And that would be forms of punishment or thinking to yourself "Oh, I should not have done that". That is one form of punishment. It could be a bruise, a bump, a cold or flu that manifests. A penalty, you know, assessed for paying a bill late or something. A cancelled flight, which means you can't go on your vacation, or whatever it is.

So, punishment starts sort of happening in the group consciousness when there is a need for forgiveness on a global scale. So, that is what I would say: Reflect back, see if there is anything coming about. What particular cause and effect can you relate to it? Do you see something manifesting?

Punishment might be too strong of a word in some of these, but you might just look at it as cause and effect. Globally, there is a need to express forgiveness, to be in that Energy of Forgiveness. And then that nullifies any need for punishment – personal or global.

Alright, then. We are going to invoke the Energy of Forgiveness, just simply by that term.

"I invoke the Energy of Forgiveness."

Now, the energy should be pretty strong right now, particularly if you are doing this in live time with me, just because it is so strong upon the planet.

This will also call forth lifetime after lifetime where that forgiveness energy is valuable to you. It can move through your akashic records and create quite a bit of healing. You could also certainly invoke it at any time for certain situations. When you just got irritated with another person or something, then you can invoke the Energy of Forgiveness so you don't have to be mad at yourself later for the way you handled it. And again, you can revert back to last week's teaching, which was "All Things with Love", and maybe work a little more deeply with that.

As you have probably have noticed, I teach in a sequential order, but each of the teachings is also good in the moment as it stands. Sort of like a deck of tarot cards. They do go in sequential order and by suite and progression. They tie in numerologically as well as astrologically, and they tie in with the Kabala. However, you can just pull one card and get quite a bit of value from it.

Alright. So, just a reminder here. And this is from the I-Ching teachings, which are also a body of my work when I was incarnate as Confucius. It is a universal law. Imagine the swing of a pendulum. How it comes to one side, and then it turns, it goes back. So the teaching is that:

All things, as they reach their full potential, will turn toward their opposite.

On a global scale, that is what we are experiencing. And within the group of Light Workers and World Servers, it is also what we are experiencing. Coming to a full potential right now, therefore also turning toward an opposite. So, what you are going to see is dark side manifesting. Now, some will say it is effects of Pluto. You could describe it numerous ways, but I would just think of that pendulum swing. All things, as they come to their full potential, turn toward their opposite. And that would be the effect that is going in. So to neutralize that effect, invoke the Energy of Forgiveness.

Alright, dear ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
