And here is Djwhal Khul's latest Spirituality Article, information complimentary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are going to begin with a golden white light coming in through the crown chakra and just sort of gently bouncing on top of the head. And you want to see almost like a rain drop would come down and bounce a little bit. So we want to see just a gentle bouncing of golden white light right on the top of the head.

And you want that to be a gentle bouncing, not enough to cause pain, just a little bit of a sensation around the top of the head. And then at some point you'll get kind of a bulging feeling toward the frontal lobes of the brain. That's when you can just take a deep breath and exhale downward and let that golden white flush through the central chakra channel and open everything up.

And then another way to accomplish that same task, that's maybe a little more gentle for some of you, would be to see the golden white light spiraling down engaging the crown chakra and then when you exhale, it spirals the rest of the way right down through the body. It's sort of a channel clearing roto-router, if you will.

Now this is in preparation for Pluto going direct into Capricorn. Now that is the second time it has gone into Capricorn. It went retrograde and then direct now and it will stay in Capricorn until 2023. We have a lot happening and certainly transformation is the key word.

On a global scale that configuration is about transforming government. And we have our special call about that on November 26. You want to look at the Tele-course page and you can order it before or after the fact and still listen by telephone and on audio.

So the basic inward transformation, that would be yours personally, depending upon where Pluto is in your chart, would correspond to your worst fear, or your deepest fear. So maybe you have got a fear about losing your health, or you've got a fear about losing your job, or a fear that your relationship will fall apart or whatever the deepest fear is, it will be triggered at this time.

Triggered fears show up in the consciousness. They show up in the chakras or in the tissues in the body. They show up in the thoughts and the mental conditioning, and they can be cleared away with this flushing system. So either the bouncing until you get pressure in the front of the head or the spiral downward and then repeat it twice. Whichever exercise you choose, you're doing a total of three times.

That would be simply to clear your central channel so that you are communing with the Divine rather than running your own patterns.

Certainly everyone does the best they can possibly do given their pattern and their conditioning. So it is normal to see Humanity operating off a pattern and conditioning. However if you are spiritually advancing and you want to transform personally and planetarily, then it requires the devotion to move beyond that into a stronger relationship with Spirit or with Oneness.

For those of you wondering about the throat clearing, my training as a Tibetan monk is to use the vocal chords completely differently and to sound full chords, chanting three tones at the same time. The channel's voice is not trained at all for any kind of singing and particularly not in that way. So when I superimpose my vocal chords over her vocal chords, well we trip over a few vocal chords here and there. But basically, I am still able to get a clear message through.

Alright then. That has been your Spirituality Article information for this week. Remember that while you are doing your clearing, you can just command that whatever fears you might have, old programming, new programming or maybe a global economic concern, or whatever it is. Command that it is just rinsed down through the body whenever you do that three flush clearing and that once it leaves you, it is no longer fear because it was your programming. So it's just clean energy leaving your body going into the earth.

Alright. Thank you and as always, my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
