And here is Djwhal Khul's latest Spirituality Article, information complementary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright we are going to begin with what I want to call "Uprising" and it literally is the energies rising up in the form of Earth coming upward to greet the Heavens. Now in this era, we often work with the energies of the heavenly flow coming downwards to greet the earth. But what we need now is to elevate the Earth energies and bring them heavenwards. So I am calling it "Uprising".

When these energies are strongly present, it makes for a few things in the personal development. One of those would be change, sometimes rather erratic change or constant change like you change one thing and then you go on to change the next thing, and then the next thing. It brings about rapid movement and change that is aligning one more with their divine intent, and that part is very good of course.

Then what it does economically, socially, politically, even to weather patterns, is create also a likewise stirring of those energies.

Now we will come upon, fairly soon here, the Tibetan New Year. Now it is also called Losar. The calculations for those who are wondering about it, is when you have your January 1 New Year, your next new moon is your Chinese New Year and the new moon after that is Tibetan New Year. So that is how it is calculated on an annual basis. You can look it up in the calendars.

If you take a moment to search Tibetan New Year 2009 and you get maybe an independent news agency or something reporting what is going on, you will see that the Tibetans in this uprising of energy are not celebrating Tibetan New Year, not only inside Tibet but also refugees.

So we will be doing a very special call on February 24 to help balance those energies. But that sense that "we are not going to tolerate the old, it is no longer working", will be seen there. It will also be seen in maybe just the way you relate to how much money is in the bank account or not in the bank account, or how much that stock portfolio is or is not worth these days, or spending habits. It will certainly affect all of the economies around the globe.

So this uprising energy, you will see it working now. I would add quite a bit of the transmuting violet flame to help make that energy softened. I would also put in quite a bit of a pink light, a kind of soft pink. If you are familiar with gemstones, I would go with kunzite [k-u-n-z-i-t-e] or a pink tourmaline color. Either of those two particular shades would be beneficial with the vibration.

The pink tourmaline often comes inside lepidolite, which is a substance to calm the body. There is a drug made from it to sedate or calm the mood a little bit. If there is a need to sort of tone things down to a more peaceful center, the pink tourmaline is more appropriate. If you are working to have more heart chakra presence and expansion, then the kunzite is more appropriate.

So just see this uprising energy coming up from the Earth to greet the Heavens and you can even feel it sweep up through your body. At the same time, there will be waves of it consistently for a couple of weeks now.

Alright. As always, thank you and my love to you.
