(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We begin our Spirituality Article information for this week with a reminder about a financial review. We are working with this one in audio only. There won’t be a YouTube or a new video on the website for about a week; the staff on vacation and what not. So this is the easiest way to get the updated information to you.

Financial Resources are abundant to everyone upon the planet. It does not matter what the belief systems are around you. So one technique that I would like to share with you today is to go deep within the core of your own being and just make a very simple question. "What are my best financial resources?" And again it is from within your own being. And again the question is "What are my best financial resources?"

Now nothing may come to mind initially. I would like for you to continue to ask the question repeatedly and you are looking really for a sensation of something bubbling to the surface or perhaps an energy surge, perhaps a yawning, a releasing of energy. It is more of an effect, not necessarily a concrete financial answer. Continue to pose the question: "What are my best financial resources?" Several times a day, several times a minute even, and allow the energy to continue to come forth.

This is a very important time not to get caught up in a more specific question like, "How can I pay a certain bill?" or "Where am I going to get the money for a certain medical purpose or vehicle repair or whatever?" Leave it very very generic. "Where are my or what are my best financial resources?" and again let the effect be produced from within the bodily consciousness. Not the mind, not the emotions, but a physical cellular tissue response. Eventually your body will open a resource area and then the rest of the consciousness can access it.

Alright dear ones. Thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
