Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Just a quick comment. The first three days of this Spirituality Article week, July 1, 2 and 3, might be a bit bumpy on the emotional front. Some people may find they're agitated, they make outbursts or at least thoughts of ill intention if not words misspoken. So practice Unconditional Love. Just really ask yourself, could you let go of that energy, can you do it now, and just [breath] breathe it out. Fill yourself with Love, Unconditional Love, and really work with Mastery. That will help tremendously.

Now onto a bigger picture because what we have now is a lot of activity in the Galaxy. Really, a lot of activity on Earth that is very bumpy as well. The end of the Mayan calendar so to speak is an end of a phase. We've been coming towards the end of that cycle for quite some time, since 1980 really. It will not culminate really probably until about 4 years after the end of the Mayan calendar. So I am going to give it to 2016 or so before we finish the really bumpy part. Then we have another 4 – 8 years of rebuilding beyond that.

So what is 12-21-2010? What is Winter Solstice 2012, I mean. Vibrationally it's the exact point of the Solar System, your Solar System, moving through the center of the Milky Way. And you could look at it, I don't know if this will come out, there is one orbit this way and another orbit this way, kind of passing through each other. One is vertical and one is horizontal. The Equator or the center point of the Galaxy is bumpy. The energy is just simply bumpy, you are crossing above and below the Equator constantly now. This creates a wobble in the orb.

Then your Sun, all of your Planets, we're going to see a few more asteroids and comets and things, more earthquakes, more pretty much everything. This is a common cycle.

As all orbits go, you start at one point and come full circle back to the same point. So it is not a new cycle. It is just the first time it's happened with this much of a population on the planet.

So expect bumpiness. Hold your spiritual centre. Remember you are eternal. Existence is going to continue. It is not the end of the planet or the end of life at all. It's the end of a cycle and the beginning of a new cycle.

But cosmically speaking it is a very big event. And when you get to Winter Solstice 2012, you'll be right about there. There are certain planetary alignments. We expect kind of a dark rift in the Milky Way Galaxy and the Earth should be right about in the center of it at that point. So these are just Heavenly occurrences. Trust in the process of Creation and All Is Well.

Thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
