(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are going to work with some of the economic changes that are forthcoming. We are entering into a time period of about a one month cycle where personal and global economics could change dramatically.

And I would say most would perceive it as a sharp drop or a time in which they might rethink where they are putting their money, what investments will make money, what investments will lose money. I also see some potential there for differences in gas prices, cost of living and other things changing rapidly. So, perhaps even seeing unemployment rates go up quite a bit.

So in this time period of economic changes, which is really a very extended time but there is a one month sort of crunch going on, starting now, that allows for you to use your own Higher Power, use your own intuitive abilities, and begin to work with the concept of protecting your resources, creating a nest egg, having a way of preserving your way of living, etc. So invoke Higher Power. Work please with the Angelic kingdom, the Ascended Masters, Planetary Logos, Solar Logos, Universal Logos, etc. Call in these great beings to begin to work with you and help in that regard.

It is also important to remember that fear begets more fear. In other words whatever you are focused upon is what you get. So empty. Whenever fears arise or concerns or small worries, empty them out, ask for resolution for them, a way to resolve whatever it is, fill with Love, and then just keep repeating that process.

The more that you can fill with Love, overflow with Love, let that Love just literally spread all around you, the better during this time period.

Alright. As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
