(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi delek.

Alright. We have so many heavenly configurations happening this particular week and some other interesting placements that your astronomers and such don't track, that I thought this would be a good time to cover what I call outside the box, the box being your physical body and your concept of reality or physical reality.

The energies are absolutely perfect right now for realizing Eternity, that all-inclusive expanded state of consciousness that dwells in multiple dimensions simultaneously. Some of your dreams may be kind of showing you that, for example, like you are walking through a forest and your next step is onto a beach and then suddenly you're standing on a mountain, looking at a beautiful sunset. So you'll be seeing that kind of imagery of being able to move quickly from one "reality" to another.

In shamanic travels this has been done for a very long time. In certain cultures it's considered normal, you know, to have these things occurring, or ceremonial at least. In the modern society for some reason there has been an attempt to make spiritual awareness sound like it's, you know, unconventional in some way. But it is absolutely a natural state of being.

So outside the box is really what the Universe is calling forth at this point, or your lesson together as Creation moving through this time period would be death of the old way of being, birth of a new way of being that is outside the box, not something you are already familiar with in any way.

So the best way to let these multitudes of ideas and reality consciousnesses come in is to meditate if you will, in an expanded state, spend a little extra time dreaming before you get out of bed in the morning, that sort of thing. So let yourself be expanded beyond any borders that you previously perceived. And it will make this timeframe more comfortable for you because you'll be resonating at a greater frequency, your All Inclusive Self, and you'll also feel more at one in the world.

Alright. As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
