(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi delek. A very warm Tibetan greeting to you, equivalent to namaste.

Today, a very important topic: Uranus in Aries equals change. And that is happening on March 10, 2011 and lasts for a good seven years. I did some mentioning of it in the forecast, we'll be doing a special VIP exclusive bonus call to facilitate for those that subscribe to the regular teachings.

Essentially, it brings about change. It literally says "You will change and you won't repeat the old things that no longer work." Now, this is exciting when we look at world finances, when we look at using war to try to get the end result of peace, when we look at many things. This is a time during which ways can be reformed and for the better, for the highest good of all.

When we examine this on a personal level, it can do a few things. If you are flexible, open minded, easily make changes, seize new opportunities, that sort of thing, you're probably going to have a lot of fun during this time period. You can literally kind of create whatever you want. There's endless opportunity at this time for those who love change, welcome change and can follow through with changes.

Now, if you are already having too many irons in the fire, it's time to simplify your life as dramatically as you possibly can so that you are focused, still diversified, maybe focused on three to five things instead of fifteen or twenty projects.

If you are the type that resists change even if it is for the better, I would urge you to rather immediately give up that particular pattern. Keep removing any beliefs about changes being negative and keep affirming that change is easy, change is welcome. Kind of "Bring it on, Universe! I can handle anything. I love changes. Changes are easy, and fun, and creative." Do whatever you can to reprogram that.

Now, people that are very stubborn, kind of naturally in their charts, or they're in a very stubborn situation, it might even be an illegal situation or a health situation or a living or working situation where things are strenuous, are going to find that changes have to come about in that arena too. And again, see if you can just make the best of it, rather than resisting it. Because the stubborn, stubborn people particularly, or stubborn patterns in general, are going to be forced to change. It is as if the whole Universe is saying: You will change! Or else... So you don't want to go to the or else. You want to be cooperative, willing and easy to get along with, regarding changes.

Alright, dear ones. As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
