And here is Djwhal Khul's latest Spirituality Article, information complimentary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek. A very warm Tibetan welcome to you.

For those who might not be informed, I am a Tibetan basically spirit of many incarnations but also of course other incarnations including some ones that might be more known in other circles, so Djwhal Khul being the name I chose when working with Madame Blavatsky from the Theosophical Society and Alice A. Bailey. Some call me the Tibetan instead. That's fine.

The vibration that I want to work with today is one of Violet Flame. Now the Violet Flame is accessible in many different ways. In other words, you could use a kind of very deep purple color for transformational energies.

You can use a very pale violet. It also has transformational qualities but a little bit different.

So what we want is transform, transmute and purify. So what I would like to do now is invoke the positive aspect only of that Seventh Ray Violet and then add to it Violet Flame from St. Germaine and just allow that to sort of envelop the body.

Now generally speaking it starts to move any stagnant Chi or Qi. It will sometimes give you a sense of buzzing or just like wind moving around inside the body. And other times, it just has a kind of nice blissful uplifting feeling to it.

So as you breathe, really ignite that violet fire along with the positive aspect of that Seventh Ray quality and you might also of course invoke the presence of St. Germaine.

Really feel the energy coming up through the body. You might even want to move the arms a little bit to circulate the Chi. Breathe. [Exhale]

Now if you want to add more power to this, you can OM or OM MANE PADME HUM as a chant or you can just tone any particular sound your body seems to want to make, and then move to the next sound, etc., and the vibration of sound added to all of that is very purifying as well.

This particular type of Violet Fire is very good to use any time but particularly so when we are going through a lot of earth changes, solar flares, and other things, that you want to keep your consciousness as clear and as divine as possible.

Alright. As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
