(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We have a Leap Year, Spring Equinox and a Mercury retrograde all going on at the same time here along with a few other influences which I think make this particular week interesting, most of which are solar flares and, as I noted in the Quarterly Forecast, a few expansive energies happening.

Most fortunate time to focus on expanding the world, expanding your consciousness, expanding your soul's design and then keep in mind planetary energies are doing the same thing. So I am expecting more quakes and things like that that tend to separate or expand the energies. Strange weather patterns connected with solar flares, and perhaps an expansion of emotions connected with the solar flares and the Mercury retrograde.

So you can spring forward so to speak even with the Mercury retrograde. One of the things that works best with just your own consciousness is go within and forget about words. In other words, non-verbal sense of springing forward and this is our Year for Quantum Leaps and a lot more psychic experiences and those types of things.

Those who did the Tibetan Losar, which means New Year, "Tibetan Losar 2012 Tele-Seminar" report that the energy is very profound and they're psychically quite connected with many Tibetan people and others; it's just really kind of enhanced. So this whole year will continue to build upon those natural psychic tendencies.

For those who don't think they're psychic or they think perhaps they're just losing their minds or their memory's going away or some other kind of challenge happening, it could be scary for them. However I would say, with spiritual maturity or with the understanding of what's going on in the metaphysical realms, this is all normal activity. Even though it's sometimes called paranormal, it's simply normal.

So spring forward. Don't let miscommunications bog you down. Work around them; skip over them. You can go back and clean them up later after Mercury goes direct and just have fun. Expand. Expand. Leap and have fun.

As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
