(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. This week I want to talk about the powerful Full Moon in the sign of Leo. The Sun is in Aquarius, the Moon is Full in the opposite sign of the zodiac or Leo in this case. I'm seeing it as a very favorable Moon for most people; a good time to ponder a redirection in life or if you're already moving in a certain way, you can gain more momentum now.

It can also be a time I think when you can start something new and have a lot of follow through time with it. So... well that is of course if your plate isn't too full already.

This time period is really kind of calling for simplification, so if you have for example something urgent that you need to tend to I would say put everything else on hold and focus on that one thing with minimal or no distractions, if at all possible.

For example, it is a very good time to organize all of the tax receipts and that sort of thing. Maybe a good time to change some landscape or the interior of the home, or something like that. Even perhaps take up a new business adventure and certainly relationships beginning under that influence are generally strong as well, as long as you're using your discernment going into them of course.

So a very productive Full Moon in Leo. We have a lot of other things going on. This is a very potent time period in general so always kind of keep reassessing what is most important to you, health, relationships, financial security, those kinds of things. Just kind of keep assessing and giving thanks for what you do have.

Alright. As always, thank you and my love to you.
