(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. This is the beginning of Saka Dawa, a very important holiday in terms of Tibetan Buddhism to celebrate the birth, death and enlightenment of Buddha.

I want to talk about you, individually, and the process of birth, death and enlightenment. The wheel of re-incarnation is experienced until the point of enlightenment and then at that point one can continue with the Bodhisattva vow to reincarnate till there be no longer suffering on the planet or till we all reach enlightenment or whatever the case might be.

And then the process just in-between of birth and death and how one removes the other, you can just simply embrace existence for what it is, exactly how it is, and keep smiling about it.

And then I also invite you to ponder the focus that I put forth for the World Servers Broadcast this week which is "Everything is liquid light".

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.

Djwhal Khul
