And here is Djwhal Khul’s latest Spirituality Article, information complimentary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Well. Our pressure cooker is building and lots of things are happening and here we get ready for our second eclipse of the month.

So we have a Lunar Eclipse on the Full Moon, Friday, September 16, and we have that Moon full in what I call Psychic Pisces. And the watery moon and watery sign in Pisces being quite intuitive, telepathic, psychic basically. So all happening still during that Mercury Retrograde which is having a strong effect on electronics and such. So we have a lot, a lot.

I want to say with this one, charge your water in the Full Moon. You know take a glass jar of some sort, fill it with some good drinking water, put a cap on it or something and put it out in the Moonlight and then drink that charged water because that will help you quite a bit. You can also set a vase of water or a tall jug of water, preferably a glass container, next to your bed and that will also enhance or pick up the dream energies quite strongly.

So I want to encourage you to maybe find ways to relate to water. And as H₂O, it is the H or the hydrogen molecule that helps transfer psychic energies and healing energies and such.

So maybe just ponder that sometime in night school or out on the dream planes and even just maybe leave your hands sit in a bowl of water for a little while, or soak your feet for a while and feel how the energy can shift just from that.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
