Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Well it's Tibetan New Year on this New Moon, also called Losar. And we have a solar eclipse on the heels of the last Full Moon which also had an eclipse, a lunar eclipse. So a very powerful building of the New Year.

I would say this is a time to focus on moving rapidly forward. If you can think of a rooster charging toward whatever its goal is, going to protect a hen or going toward the feed or going after some other kind of food, so rooster charging forward. This is really the kind of the energy that goes with this.

For the eclipse part I'm going to say do a little worship to the Sun on that day, so that's going to be Sunday, February 26. That morning if you can, a little worship to the Sun. It could be a yoga pose, or just a simple prayer, gazing at the sunrise gently while the light is still filtered properly or if you're laying in bed just salute the Sun in some way.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.

Djwhal Khul
