Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We're going to talk this week about Spirit Helpers and how to address those on the other side that can work with you, maybe as a guardian angel, a deceased relative who is looking after you and also just spiritual teachers, Masters, healers.

So, essentially spirit is eternal, the fleshy body is temporary but when one drops a body their spirit is still very much alive, vital, available, communicative. So I want you to think in terms of just like picking up a telephone or sending a text message or something, that you can quite easily communicate with those on the other side, that you can request things like "Can you help me out with this life challenge right now?" or "Can you watch over me while I drive. Keep me protected and keep me safe." "Can you point me in the right direction in my career choice." That sort of thing. So it's just very much a constant connection and if it is a deceased one, you know, you know them by name, you know their vibration. You might have a piece of their jewelry or a photograph of them and you can use that to add to the power of it.

Mostly you're really wanting to open the Third Eye Center and invite them in and connect with them like a passage way of communication and then also through the Heart Chakra where you are absorbing them if you will to the center of your chest and then receiving information from them.

So this is all basically love based spirit helpers and how to best use them and they are there to help you. So please call upon all your Spirit Helpers including the Ascended Masters.

As always, thank you and my love to you.
