Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Well, we have Mercury in its retrograde state moving into Leo, which can put a little more passion and fire into communications but it's still retrograde until September 5. So we see it making for an interesting mishmash over Labor Day weekend as a U.S.A. holiday.

I also see it perhaps as miscommunications construed between world leaders and such, so it is a precarious time.

As we go into September, the general theme there is sort of a collapsing effect, so weak structures collapse. So that could be a weak relationship, it could be any number of things, so be on the lookout.

And in general I would say try to keep putting yourself into a playful framework where you're looking at even a mundane task is a playful event. "I am going to playfully wash the dishes now." "I am going to playfully sweep the patio now." So kind of move more into a childlike or in the tarot "The Fool" and just kind of take a little more lighthearted approach to everyday living and that will be something that is beneficial.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
