Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Well, we have a gorgeous Harvest Moon and it's time to harvest the bounty, reap what you have sown, maybe have a beautiful autumn feast, a beautiful feast of vegetables.

Coming up here in the U.S.A., we have Columbus Day or Indigenous People's Day on a global scale. So again, time to celebrate Creation, creative process and the way in which everything is made and the beauty of the point of origin from which it came.

And then I think that in terms of “we reap what we have sown”, take in terms of receiving back all the good karma that you have put forth. See the loop coming back. Allow yourself to be a receiver of this bounty of creation and really marvel that Creation is this bountiful, fruitful, never ending process.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
