Today we want to talk about Mars in Aquarius which has already happened. Venus will move into Cancer then the Sun will go into Gemini. So what we have now is an opportunity to bring forth the feminine power of Mars and use it in a humanitarian way so the sign of Aquarius coming into play.

As Venus enters Cancer which happens on the 19th in the morning, Saturday morning, we are going to have a little more of that beauty aspect, a little bit more of that wanting to beautify the home, beautify the body, maybe change the way you dress a little bit or the way you do your hair a little bit or rearrange the furniture, things like that.

Then Sunday the 20th the Sun will move into Gemini. Now that brings in a kind of lovely dynamic normally however it is going to bring back a ping-pong of Mars Venus Mars Venus Mars Venus kind of ping-ponging. So as a Lightworker your goal would be to blend them within, see them almost like a DNA strand inter-wrapped, working together always, rather than polar opposites pinging back and forth.

When we look at this kind of more towards a global level, it gets interesting. It can get interesting with politics and we are working on the inner planes and just say "Peace, Peace, Peace. Peace prevails." Find a peaceful way to get results rather than the classic Mars masculine aspect which likes to fight.

So Peace Peace Peace, feminine Mars aspect. Beautiful Venus and lovely Cancer and Sun in lovely dynamic Gemini.

Do your best to intertwine all of that and as always, thank you and my love to you.

Djwhal Khul
