Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. What we have now is a New Moon Solar Eclipse kind of packing an extra little punch. You have Moon in Cancer while the Sun is in Cancer and that Eclipse power. So generally speaking, Celestial events build one upon another and this is another kind of heightened awareness that is going on globally. Well, it affects the whole Solar System but we deal primarily with the kingdoms on Earth.

So, I will also say that I do see more and more displacement of water in general. Meaning you might have a lot of water in one part of the body but still have dry skin or there might be enough water in one place on the planet but not enough elsewhere. So fluids are becoming rather important. Fluids, electrolytes and conscious direction of where you want the highly conscious water molecules to go. So talk lovingly please and work with water placement.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
