Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Well we have a big event this week: Pluto going direct in Capricorn where it's been for a while and will be for five more years and it occurs on September 30, on the same day that Sukkot ends. So a feasting, a Jewish feasting holiday.

It has been retrograde since Earth Day which is April 22. Pluto kind of raking backwards in the heavens sort of flushes out a lot of justice and righteousness. And when it goes direct and because of other things positioned in the heavens, I'm going to say that it really sort of is like the gavel coming down striking so this will bring about swift justice and karma, karmic retribution.

As a light worker you want to keep requesting forgiveness for any known and unknown things that you might require forgiveness. You want to keep putting yourself in the light of truth and shining brightly as a beacon of light or a beacon of truth and then embracing any contradictions within your own consciousness that might arise. So if you say "Truthfully I am a joyous being" and all of a sudden you get a little twinge of anger, acknowledge it and then transform it or transcend it into a Joy so you are not trying to bury it under a rug. You are bringing it to the light and resolving it and that will help quite a bit.

Alright Dear Ones. Thank you and my love to you.
