Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Well, in honor of St Patrick's Day, I thought that we'd talk about lucky love. What we have when we work with luck, we think of good luck or bad luck and then when we think of love you know maybe matters of the heart, and I'm putting together luck and love.

I would like to work with the image of a shamrock and seeing the luck of finding a four leaf clover, the aspect of love coming from nature and all other sources. So we want to just combine lucky and love energetically together and maybe make that a little mantra that you play with like "I have lucky love" or "I am lucky in love", "I am love and luck". You know start playing with the energies of those.

And then also, St Patrick's Day kind of truly we're kind of building up into a Supermoon on March 20, Spring Equinox Supermoon, Sun entering Aries, powerful, powerful day. So you might also just carry that lucky love in that energy as well and celebrating the internal marriage of Divine Feminine and Divine Masculine.

Alright Dear Ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
