(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We are working vibrationally with quite a few energies building up to what I might call a very strong close of the year. 2009 has been a very, very powerful time period and as we gear into the energies, you are going to be finding that stresses, even minor stresses, are stronger now. Brain imbalances and chemistry imbalances are more prominent.

Essentially this is a time for the energies of Peace, Sisterhood, Brotherhood, all kinds of energies that would just blend out the confusion, congestion and overwhelm.

So Sisterly and Brotherly Love vibrationally can be produced from within the consciousness, and I would suggest that you use a balance of colors that are rainbow related. So we are going to work with, actually the prominent color, a yellow, Third Ray yellow, but kind of more towards the pastel realm. Then we are going to work with a kind of pink red color, not as red as the rainbow, a little more toward the pink range and again pastel. Then an orange color. Then add to this mix a little bit of blue and green and violet.

And just fill the aura, again primarily with a pale yellow color and then little flecks of other rainbow particles in it, however that best works for you to imagine. And then if you feel as though you want some sort of a metallic shimmer into that or a luminescent color, then you would work with either a silver or a gold or even a kind of bronze shimmer added to that. And many of you are going to want that kind of effervescent or luminescent energy as it is more attuned to what we call the higher rays.

Alright. So keep the energies as calm as you possibly can. Take some time out for yourself to rest a little bit, away from commotion and activities. Even if it is 10 seconds that you take just for yourself to close your eyes and breathe, just that 10 seconds is going to be quite helpful.

As always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
